

The Johns Family

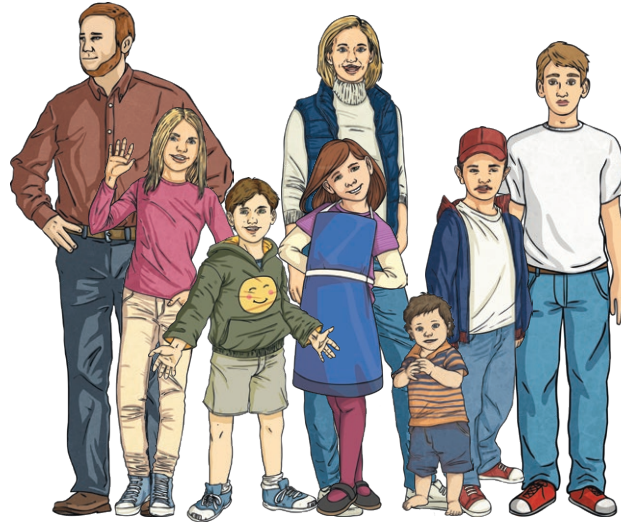

The Johns family is a large family. There is mum, dad and six children. Mum works from home and dad works in the city, which is a 45-minute drive away. The oldest child in the John's family is 16 and the youngest is three.

Consider

What are their basic needs?

What are their other needs?

What could some of their wants be?

Basic Needs

Things that are essential for survival.

Other Needs

Things that are not essential but important to survive comfortably.

Wants

Things that are not important or essential.

Henry and Greta Robertson

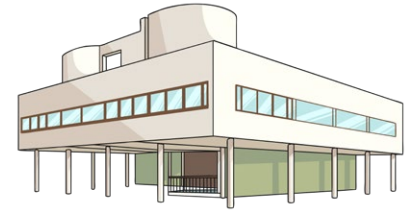

Henry and Greta live in the Purple Blossom Retirement Home. Henry is 83 years old and suffers from hearing loss. Greta is 81 years old and is in good health. Henry really enjoys social activities and movie nights while Greta is an avid reader and belongs to a book club.

Consider

What are their basic needs?

What are their other needs?

What could some of their wants be?

Basic Needs

Things that are essential for survival.

Other Needs

Things that are not essential but important to survive comfortably.

Wants

Things that are not important or essential.

Jessica

Jessica is eleven years old and is in year six at her local primary school, which is about two kilometers away from her house. Jessica lives with her mum and grandma and is an only child. Jessica loves listening to music and enjoys playing her device on weekends. Jessica was in an accident several years ago and now needs a wheelchair.

Consider

What are her basic needs?

What are her other needs?

What could some of her wants be?

Basic Needs

Things that are essential for survival.

Other Needs

Things that are not essential but important to survive comfortably.

Wants

Things that are not important or essential.

Henley University Residences

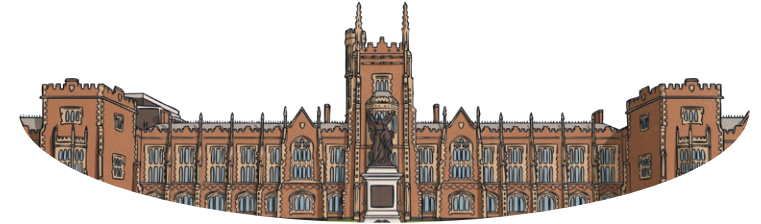

Henley University Residences is a high-rise apartment block connected to the Henley University. Everyone who lives in the residences is a student of the university. They are a young group of people ranging from 18 to 25 years old.

Consider

What are their basic needs?

What are their other needs?

What could some of their wants be?

Basic Needs

Things that are essential for survival.

Other Needs

Things that are not essential but important to survive comfortably.

Wants

Things that are not important or essential.

Joshua

Joshua is a 35-year-old male who lives in a remote part of Victoria. He works as a guitar teacher and musician. Joshua's farm is in a bush fire prone area. Joshua lives with his three dogs and two pet alpacas.

Consider

What are his basic needs?

What are his other needs?

What could some of his wants be?

Basic Needs

Things that are essential for survival.

Other Needs

Things that are not essential but important to survive comfortably.

Wants

Things that are not important or essential.